

TEACHER TRAINING SEMINAR

The Leader

Gordon R. Clymer

Prague, Czech Republic, May 2006

INTRODUCTION:

- A. Some Training Begins With the Lesson or the Learner
- B. Great Learning Experiences Begin With Well Trained Leaders

I. The Leader's CHARACTER *

- A. A Godly Example
  - B. A Model of Behavior
  - C. An Open Relationship With Students
  - D. A Transparency of Life Experiences as Models for Life
- *(See The Primary Goals of Learning "Who We Are")

II. The Leader's COMMITMENT

- A. A Commitment to Personal Growth and Study
- B. A Development of Communication and Teaching Skills
- C. A Flexibility and Openness to Change
- D. A Dedication to the Application of Truth

III. The Leader's CONSISTENCY

- A. A Dedication to Living What He Is Learning
- B. An Awareness of the "Hidden Curriculum"
- C. An Emotional Stability
- D. An Ability to Follow Basic Rules of Teaching

IV. The Leader's CREATIVITY **

- A. A Use of a Wide Variety of Teaching Skills
  - B. A Choice of the Best Methods to Fit the Content
  - C. An Emphasis on Teaching to Change Lives
  - D. An Openness to the Input and Contribution of Students
- ** (See The Primary Goals of Learning "How We Do It")

CONCLUSION:

- A. I Corinthians 4:16-17
- B. I Timothy 4:12